No. 6

THE COUNTY NEWS

OAKLEY.

OAKLEY, Utah, Jan. 13, 1899.

EASTON TIMES.

Daniel Lambert has resumed work at his mill on the Smith and Monroe fork of the river.

Thanks to the new Editor of the Times as it appears in a new form. May long continuance is the wish of the writer.

PEPPA.

PEPPA, Utah, Jan. 13, 1899.

EASTON TIMES.

The grippe has a tight grip upon a number of the towns.

The Town will go down. After a short rest from its alarms, later it starts out refreshed and will be greeted with gladness by its many patriotic friends in the new management.

B. H. E. Vira.

ROCKPORT.

ROCKPORT, Utah, Jan. 10, 1899.

EASTON TIMES.

There is much sickness in Rockport at present.

Miss Mamie Talbott has recovered from her illness at the Miner's Ranch in some time past.

Miss Rose Worth, the school teacher, and Dan'l Evanson attended the Teachers' Institute at Coalville on Sunday.

Mr. Frank Githens is visiting with friends in Park City.

WANSHIP.

WANSHIP, Utah, Jan. 13, 1899.

EASTON TIMES.

It seems that Wanship has to have part in the prevailing sickness.

A doctor has been out from Salt Lake to see him. He drove a buggy in on the 10th.

We were glad to hear that Wanship will again make his appearance, and we wish it comes under his new management.

Robert Lyle Huson came home to spend the holidays. He is attending the S. Y. College.

Miss Eliza Young came from Salt Lake for her school vacation and returned on the 8th.

HOVETTEVILLE.
Rockville, Utah, Jan. 13, 1899.EASTON TIMES.
Mrs. Wm. Headman, of West Jordan came on Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Headman Brown.

Nearly every body here is barking with coughs, and several are down with the grippe.

C. H. West returned from Salt Lake Saturday, where he has been doing business for the Martin-Wells.

There was a dance here Wednesday night for the benefit of the masonic lodges that are in the field.

Pattie Lee, mother of the Hopewell Cemetery. Who put those fine crosses up there the mormons won't tell us.

Hector Clark, who has been on the stage since last winter. He says it is a hard life.

An interview with The Times very much. We also understand the new administration may continue a large sum of paper money to help keep the miners in the field.

OAKLEY.
Oakley, Utah, Jan. 13, 1899.

EASTON TIMES.

The grippe has made its appearance here, and now people begin to complain.

Dr. W. M. H. I. A. will give no lecture again until April.

Eliza Young, mother of the 10th Street boys, was very sick and absent.

Mr. C. Roberts is visiting in the mountains.

Josephine Hunt, a native resident of Hesperia, but now of Salt Lake, was visiting here during the week.

Hunt was highly favored on Sunday last, the meeting being the regular meeting of Echo and Hesperia Lodge. Franklin Cliff and others of the Lodge and Union gave discourses during the day and in the evening after, few timely remarks by Dr. C. Curtis, Dr. J. E. Fairman of Salt Lake University, an eloquent sermon, to say the least, well pleased a portion of the audience.

A delegation from Morgan was up a few days ago looking over the proposed road through the mountains and the road was favorably impressed. It is to be hoped that Davis, Weber, and Summit, will join them in a petition to the Legislature for an appropriation to make this much needed road. It would make a difference of five miles of travel. Heavy load could be hauled.

Robert Lyle Huson came home to spend the holidays. He is attending the S. Y. College.

Miss Eliza Young came from Salt Lake for her school vacation and returned on the 8th.

EASTON.
Utah, Jan. 13, 1899.

EASTON TIMES.

Robert Clark was in Coalville yesterday to business.

William Evans, our school teacher, gave very creditable entertainment and care to the children in the Social Hall. All were delighted with the exercises.

Maggie R. Salmon.

Has turned with distinguished success with another girl with an effective result. Harry's Clover Hot Tea, purifying the system, is the action of the tea, not the tea itself. Sold over the counter guarantee. Price 25 cents. Made by John Boyden & Sons.

WANSHIP.

WANSHIP, Utah, Jan. 10, 1899.

EASTON TIMES.

General session last Monday night full attendance.

Gathering in the center of the day, laboring a cooling power will cool the system, restore the liver, and remove the heat.

The following Doctor L. Carter of Ogallala, Neb., has a good practice and ought to be well known. He has a good reputation and probably has been the most successful medical man here for years past.
